Preparation of the Homophobia Room

12 things needed for the room

In the Homophobia Room you need to have the following things:

1. One bigger and one smaller lockable box

2. A frame

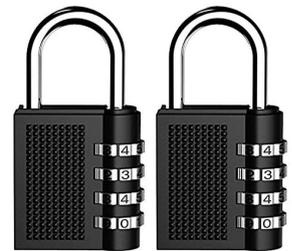

3. A pencil case

4. Book with combination lock

5. Two code locks with three digit combinations

6. Two code locks with four digit combinations

7. A lock with four letter combinations

8. A whiteboard pen that can be placed in a desk stand similar to the one in the picture

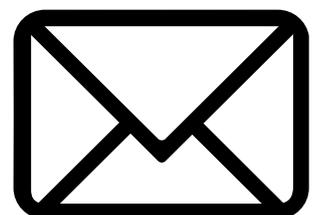

9. A toilet bag

10. A mobile case

11. A rainbow bag

12. An envelope

Preparations

It is now time to start printing, laminating and preparing certain documents.

Step 1

Start by going to the following link where all the material needed for the room is gathered.

 <https://drive.google.com/file/d/1nYmw5kOBnEsyAOCagf9SmLRTr1n6y-uz/view?usp=sharing>

Step 2

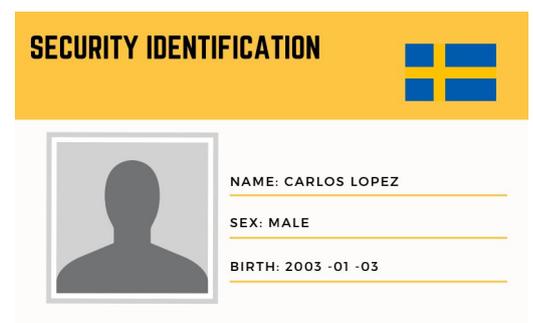

Print the following documents: "Catalina's ID" + "Letter" + "Wishlist and namepuzzle" + "Picture puzzle" + "Sms" NOTE! You only need to print the sides that are in english.

Step 3

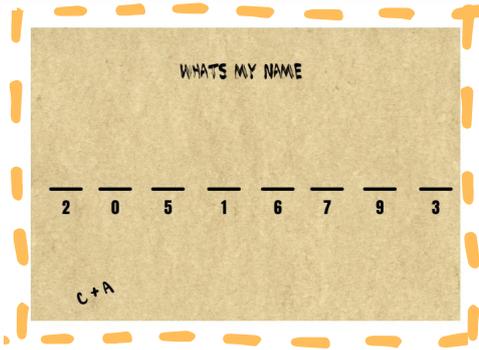

After printing the documents, cut out the documents below as follows:

"Catalinas ID"

ID-card

"Wishlist and namepuzzle"

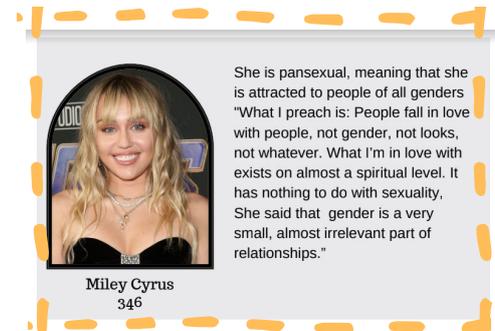

Namepuzzle

Wishlist

"Picture puzzle"

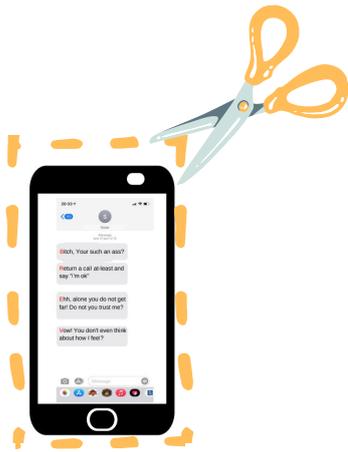

Here you cut out each celebrity card individually so that a total of eight cards are formed

"Sexualities"

- Female homosexuality or attraction to people of the same sex as oneself
- Lack of sexual attraction to others, or low / no desire for sexual activity
- A place on the spectrum of gender identity that is neither entirely male nor female
- A person who does not experience sexual attraction unless they have formed a strong emotional connection to the person first
- A person who does not fall within the norms of sexuality and / or gender identity
- When a person does not care about what their partner's gender is, but is only attracted to others based on how they are as human beings
- A person whose gender identity is not fixed, who may feel more like a man some days and more like a woman other days
- Sexual attraction to people of more than one gender
- People who have a gender identity that is different from the one they were assigned at birth
- A person born with an anatomy- including genes, sex hormones and/or genitals- which can not be unambiguously categorized as male or female.

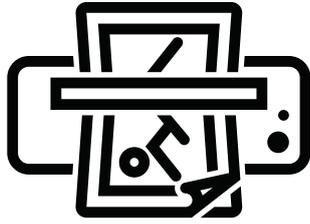

Definition card for each sexuality

- Lesbian 1
- Asexual 9
- Non-binary 7
- Demisexual 4
- Queer 8
- Pansexual 3
- Genderfluid 5
- Bisexual 2
- Transgender 4
- Intersex 6

Cut out each sexuality individually, so that a total of 10 pieces of paper are formed

2

Then laminate all the documents that you cut out in the above steps, ie 10 cards with different sexualities, a definition card for each sexuality, a text message, 8 celebrity cards, a wish list, a name puzzle and an ID card.

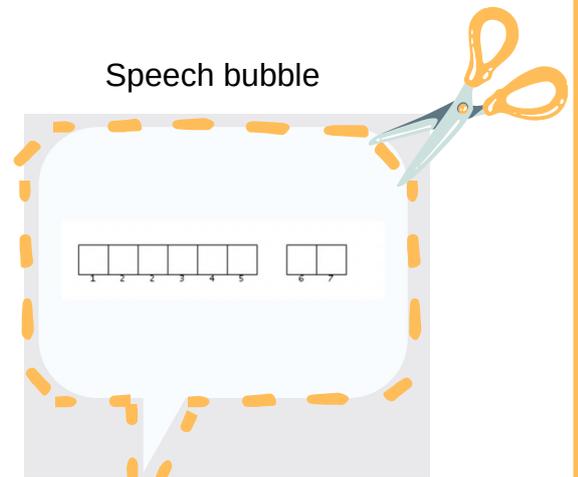

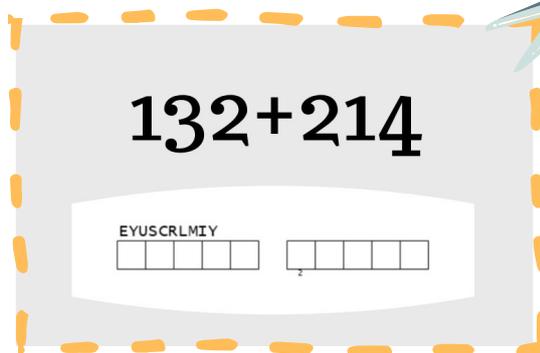

Step 4

Now print the documents named "number puzzle" and "frame rainbow"

1

In the document called "number puzzle", you need to cut out each number card one by one, so that a total of eight cards are formed. Also cut out the speech bubble.

2

Then laminate each card individually, that is eight number cards and a speech bubble.

Prepare the room

It is now time to start preparing the room for the students to play.

Step 1

Start by setting the locks to the following number combinations:

Lock with three number combinations:

- 258
- 706

Lock with four number combinations:

- 1944
- 2013

Lock with letter combination:

- BREV (Letter in english)

Step 2

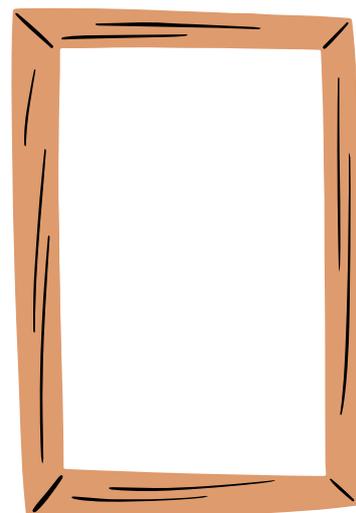

It is now time to place the documents you prepared in the previous steps

Start by placing the document named "frame rainbow", that you printed in previous steps, in the frame.

3

Bring the document named "letter" that you printed in previous steps forward and place in an envelope which you then place in the smaller box with combination lock: BREV (letter in english)

*Men and dad,
You have no idea how it feels. You have not lost a child, you have abandoned me. Parents should not do that. They should love their children unconditionally.
This is not something I have chosen, I would never have chosen this. To feel so bad about gender dysphoria and risk my parents throwing me out and rejecting me. I'm just trying to be honest and feel less miserable. And I should not even have to worry about having parents like you. You are my mother and father, how can you not want me to stay? I'm still me. It is you who have changed, you who are so narrow-minded.
And if you do not accept me and are angry with me Sven that I want to be me, because I try to create a future for myself. Then you must bear the responsibility for something that happens. And you have to live with it. Not me. You Zoro are my family, we are a family. You should always be there for me, not hate me Sven. If you're not here for me, I'm not even I can do this. I need you to love me. If you, my parents, my own flesh and blood, do not cherish me, how can I cherish myself?*

Now the room is ready to be played!

For the classroom, you are welcome to pack the materials in the rainbow bag to highlight the importance of equal treatment and the room's theme - sexual minorities. Then unpack the materials on the table so it looks like a desk belonging to Catalina. Then you place the things on the desk: the frame, the toilet bag, the pen case, the book lock, the desk stand with a whiteboard pen inside, a larger and a smaller box.

It is now time for the students to start playing the room. The manual for the game can be found in the following link:
